Dear Cheryl,

I am writing to introduce Warrington Disability Partnership's Employment Team. The team is able to offer people with a disability or health issue support to look for employment through the "Pathways to Work" programme.

Our service is free and confidential, and offers a wide range of support to individuals to help them gain the skills and confidence to return to employment.

I have enclosed some leaflets about this service and would be very grateful if you could display them around the centre.

I will contact you in the near future to answer any questions you might have about the service, the Employment Team or any of the other services Warrington Disability Partnership is able to offer and might be of interest to you.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Yours sincerely,
